IMPORTANT NOTE: There are NO REFUNDS on missed classes because in group classes, the instructor is retained in advance of teaching the class based on the total number of students participating in the class.

- ✓ I understand that when I sign my child up for a music session, I have committed to paying for the session whether or not my child remains in the class (Emergency situations will be handled on a case by case basis).
- ✓ I understand that my child must follow the non-negotiable behavior requirements to participate and remain enrolled in classes and performances.
- ✓ I understand that unexcused absences and/or continuous tardiness to class may result in my child not being able to perform or continue in the music program.

Attendance and Behavior Commitment Agreement

EXCUSED ABSENCES: Accepted excuses for missing rehearsal or performances are significant family events, accidents, serious illness/death in the family, and serious doctors appointments. Birthday parties may not be an excused absence depending on the individual situation. Please communicate excused absence requests from rehearsals or performances at the earliest possible time.

UNEXCUSED ABSENCES: Continuous unexcused absences or tardiness from classes or performances is unacceptable and may result in dismissal from the program. Absences, forgetting about class, tardiness or arriving late/leaving early because of homework are not excused and do not work in our group class environment. Problems with absences, tardiness, or leaving early from rehearsal will be given appropriate consequences regarding performance opportunities.

NON-NEGOTIABLE BEHAVIOR REQUIREMENTS

1. Students must be respectful of other students, parents, and teachers.
2. Students must treat all instruments, classroom equipment/furniture, and materials with care. It doesn't matter if the materials/instruments belong to the student or not, in our classrooms, they must be treated with care.
3. Students must allow other students to learn. Distracting students and continuous interruption of the teacher or other students will not be accommodated.
4. Food, gum and candy and drinks may not be consumed during the student's scheduled class time. Water IS allowed. Eating in class is distracting, messy, and harms instruments. Please have students' eat/drink before their lesson. If they are still eating once class has started, it will be counted as a tardy.
5. Students must stay in their assigned seat or area of the classroom unless they have permission from the teacher to go elsewhere. Students may never leave the classroom without permission.
